

Curriculum Vitae

Donal ffrench-O'Carroll is a Chartered Surveyor of long standing having worked in the Property Industry in both private practice and early in his career, as a public servant. He is a graduate of Dublin Institute of Technology (DIT), Bolton Street College, he also holds a Diploma in Legal Studies from DIT when he studied the eight subjects required of the Law Society FE1 examinations. He has a Master of Letters (MLitt) from the School of Law, Trinity College, University of Dublin; is a Fellow of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors (FRICS), a Fellow of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (FCIArb) and has many years' experience as an arbitrator. He has been pleased to have received nominations as an arbitrator from the President of the Law Society, the President of the Society of Chartered Surveyors Ireland and from Industry colleagues. In 2014 he was appointed by the Land Values Reference Committee at the High Court, to the panel of part time Statutory Property Arbitrators to hear and determine compensation claims under the Compulsory Purchase legislation. Donal had been the Director of Professional Services at CBRE Dublin and is now an independent consultant in private practice to Elliott FitzGerald, Dublin, a firm of Chartered Surveyors, 11 Lower Pembroke Street, Dublin 2. Telephone number: +353(01)6614403, Donal's direct email address is donal@elfitz.ie.