

Council of Europe online HELP course on “Interplay between the ECHR and the EU Charter of Fundamental Rights”

A great opportunity for Irish solicitors!

The course will assist legal professionals in effectively applying the European human rights standards at national level. It was developed to train legal professionals on fundamental rights issues within the scope of both the ECHR and EU Charter, focusing on the interplay between the 2 systems.

The topics are explored in a practical way, enabling applicants to apply the gained knowledge and skills.

The course consists of an introductory module and 4 substantive modules:

1. Introductory Module
2. Introduction to Human Rights Protection in Europe
3. Protection of Human Rights within the Council of Europe and the European Union
4. Interplay
5. Practical Implications

- Developed by top international experts for the Council of Europe.
- Free of charge.
- Entirely online (except from one launch/welcome session which will be held at the Law Society, Blackhall Place, Dublin 7 on 14 October 2024) and guided by a tutor.
- Flexible hours (no need to connect to “live” sessions).
- Co-organised by The Law Society of Ireland and the Council of Europe; successful participants will receive a certification from both institutions.

Please find further details in the attached concept note and agenda.

Interested? Please register here before Wednesday 02 October 2024.

Places are limited and those interested should apply immediately to avoid disappointment.

If you would like further information please contact Megan Murphy Byrne at m.murphybyrne@lawsociety.ie