

Law Society of Ireland

News Release

18th November 2013

LAW SOCIETY WELCOMES JURY VERDICTS IN THOMAS BYRNE CASE

Following the jury verdicts in the case of former solicitor Thomas Byrne today, the Law Society has issued the following statement:

‘The Law Society welcomes the verdicts of the jury in the Thomas Byrne case. However, it would be inappropriate for the Society to make any further public comment until the sentencing process has been completed.’

Note: The name of Thomas Byrne was struck off the Roll of Solicitors by the President of the High Court, on the application of the Law Society, on 16th June, 2008.